SAINT-FLORENT - Time at leisure (no shore excursions organized)

Saint-Florent is a charming seaside resort located in northwestern Corsica, between Cap Corse and the Balagne region. Nestled along the Gulf of Saint-Florent, this former Genoese town is now a popular destination known for its stunning beaches, lively streets, marina, and proximity to the Agriates Desert.

Once a small fishing village, the town grew around its harbor while maintaining its authentic charm. Its Genoese citadel dominates the landscape, bearing witness to its historical past. Saint-Florent is also famous for its wine, produced in the vineyards of Patrimonio, and for its chic yet relaxed atmosphere, which attracts boaters and visitors seeking an idyllic getaway.

The ship will be at anchor (tender service). The small port of Saint-Florent is one of the most important marinas in the region and provides direct access to the city center. From the port, everything is within walking distance.

The tour begins with a panoramic drive through the hinterland to Napoleon's summer residence. Villa San Martino is located in a pleasant valley of vineyards, in a setting of lush vegetation, about 5 km from Portoferraio.

The emperor transformed a small country house into a beautiful private villa. Villa San Martino consists of eight rooms: three of them were used by Napoleon himself, three by his officers and the remaining two were used for meetings and receptions. The neoclassical architecture at the entrance is the work of Count Anatolio Demidoff, husband of Napoleon's niece Matilde di Monfort, who decided to build a place to keep his collection of Napoleonic antiques.

On the return journey, you will stop at Porto Azzurro, where you will have time to wander the streets of this charming town, dominated by an ancient Spanish fortress. The town also has a picturesque fishing harbour and many shops selling crystals and minerals.

Next stop is La Chiusa, an old country winery set in vineyards overlooking the sea.

The estate dates back to the 1700's and includes a country house, wine cellar and miniature chapel. The owner's house, with its double outside staircase, was built later in the 1800s.

"La Chiusa hosted Napoleon Bonaparte on two occasions: once on 3 May 1814 on his arrival in Elba, while he was waiting to be officially received in Portoferraio, and another time during a hunting party on Mount Fabbrello. Here you will have the opportunity to taste some local specialities and a selection of three different wines.

Please note:

- ✓ This tour involves extensive moderate walking over cobblestone surfaces with some steps and inclines.
- ✓ Dress for the weather, wear comfortable walking shoes and bring a hat and water.
- ✓ Estimated driving times: Portoferraio to Porto Azzurro: 30min ; Porto Azzurro to La Chiusa: 30 min ; La Chiusa to Villa San Martino: 20 min. Villa San Martino to the port: 15 minutes. The order of the visits may vary.
